

SQUABBLE OVER DEER BRINGS SUIT

TRIAL SET FOR DECEMBER 3RD

Harry Hines of Traverse City is under arrest upon complaint of Elbert E. Jones of near Brown City and charged with stealing a deer. In the arraignment Tuesday before Justice Fred Alexander, the defendant pleaded not guilty and demanded a jury trial; it was set for December 3rd.

It appears that a deer was killed and that the animal was shot by more than one person. A party of three hunters, one of whom was the complainant in this case, Mr. Jones, claims that they killed the deer and were entitled to possess it. Hines, a lone hunter, claims to have been the one who actually killed the deer and that he was the rightful owner. Might seemed to prevail in this case and the Jones party took the deer and placed upon it their tag.

Hines, it is claimed, entered the camp of the other parties early the next morning and removed the tag and replaced it with his own. This naturally brot on a squabble and Hines was arrested. The latter claims that there is no question in his mind but that the deer should be his. The method in which he repossessed it, of course, was somewhat high-handed, but it may easily be concluded that in the case he was the rightful owner, he naturally would be resentful and hatred would spring up in his mind. He tells a story of how when he was a small boy, 14 years of age, he killed a deer and while he was skinning it out, along came three hunters. They grabbed his gun and removed the shells then loaded his deer into their car and got away. At that time, he said, he vowed that never again would any hunter deprive him of his rightful property, and that he didn't intend that they were going to do so at this time.

A jury will have the opportunity to face the law and the facts in the case December 3rd and then determine who, in their minds, they believe to be in the right.

VANDERBILT HOLDUP BANDITS GET $200

GAS STATION OPERATOR ROBBED AT CLOSING TIME

State police from the Cheboygan post Monday were investigating the robbery of Ira Johnston at his gasoline station by two armed bandits early Sunday morning, which netted the pair nearly $200.

Johnston had just turned out the lights in the office and was preparing to lock up the station when the two men entered and forced him to hand over the money in the cash register. Johnston said both men were middle-aged, and that one was several inches taller than his companion.

After the men left, Johnston notified the state police at Cheboygan and Sheriff George Durfee at Gaylord, and Sheriff Bobenmoyer at Grayling. The men were driving a Ford automobile, he said.

STRANGE THINGS HAPPEN AT HOUGHTON LAKE

A strange thing happened at Houghton Lake the other day. Two hunters came in after a day in a blind with a light bag of bluebills and one partridge. They had not been ashore during the day and they declined to say how they got the partridge, laughingly declaring that nobody would believe them anyway.

Their blind was located two or three hundred yards off shore and the chances are they knocked the grouse down as it flew across the lake. A week or so earlier, however, Houghton lake duck hunters recorded even a fanner one. A prairie chicken flew out from the wooded shore, made straight for a blind and actually alighted in the water among a flock of live mallard decoys. The hunters in the blind bagged the bird and took it ashore to prove their story.

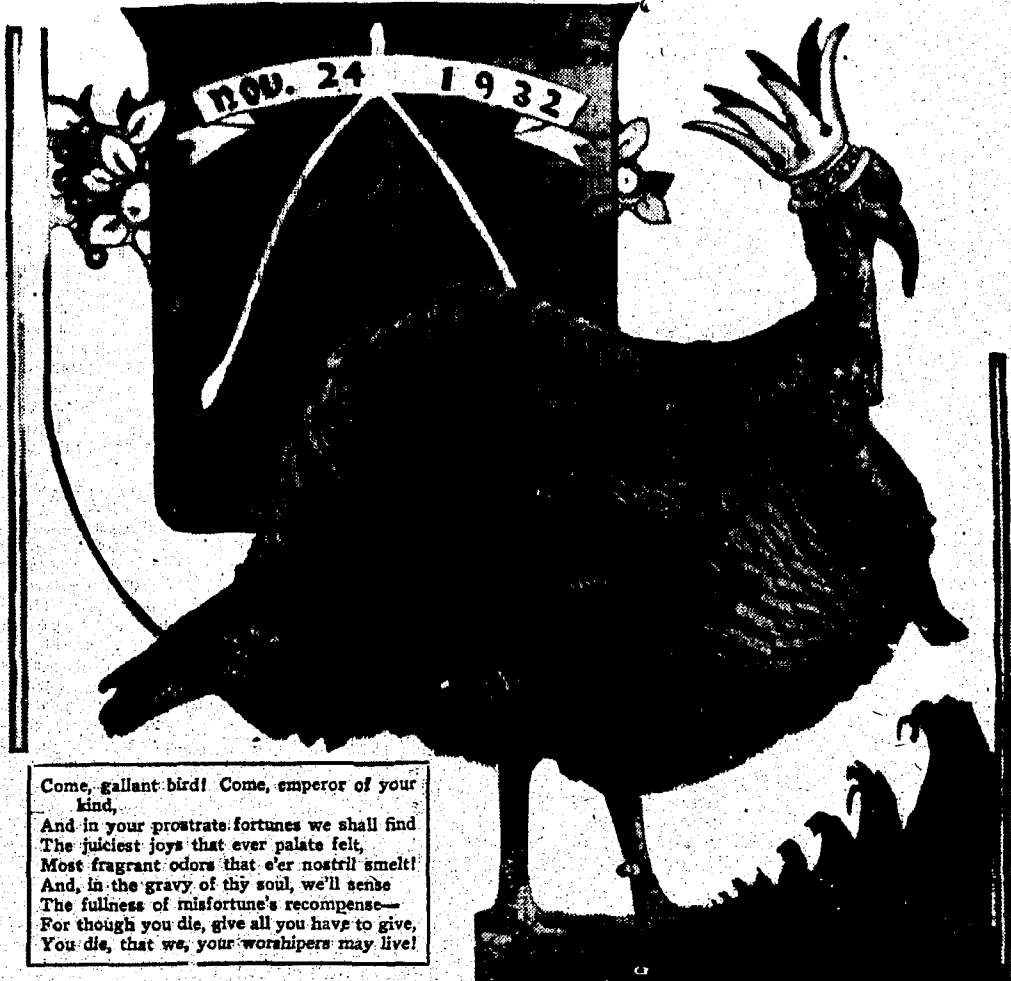

Whether the chicken was bewildered, whether he had been frightened by gunners, on shore or whether he had associated with mallards in a nearby marsh during the summer would be hard to say. At least his strange actions prove one thing: A prairie chicken can alight on the water and apparently is able to swim if he has to.

Not many hunters know that a partridge will actually take to water if he is hard pressed. Yet A. C. Bent, widely known eastern ornithologist, in his recent book on North American grouse, quotes two cases of a grouse seeking concealment in shoal water when startled by a dog or pursued by a hawk. In both cases the bird was completely hidden under water with the exception of its head. Bent adds that the partridge can swim well if winged over water.—Ben East in Bay City Times.

GRAYLING HUNTER ATTACKED BY DEER

November 21st, Mr. Chris Jensen, an employee of the Michigan Central railroad got his buck. Mr. Jensen finished work as usual at 3:00 P. M. and promptly struck out for the woods. About ten minutes after leaving his car and entering the woods, he saw a nice buck coming towards him. Being of tender heart and believing in the wisdom of an order once issued by a famous general: "Don't fire until you see the whites of their eyes," he held his fire. The buck kept coming and, within twenty feet of the hunter, lowered his head and snorted, smoke issuing from his nostrils. The buck, from all appearances, intended to attack and Jensen fired one shot. To his surprise the deer dropped in his tracks. The Jensen family are enjoying venison steaks as a result of the instinct of self preservation born in all men.

AUTOCRAT OF THE DAY

Come, gallant bird! Come, emperor of your kind,
And in your prostrate fortunes we shall find
The juiciest joys that ever palate felt,
Most fragrant odors that e'er nostril smelt!
And, in the grave of thy soul, we'll send
The fullness of misfortune's recompense—
For though you die, give all you have to give,
You die, that we, your worshipers may live!

JURY ACQUITS MARION HUNTER

On complaint of Otto Failing, warden at the Military reservation, Rev. L. S. Reed of Marion, Mich., was arrested, charged with killing a deer within the State Military reservation. The latter plead not guilty and the case was tried before Justice Fred Alexander Tuesday afternoon, when a jury rendered a verdict of not guilty.

It seems, according to the testimony, that Mr. Reed was hunting upon lands privately owned by J. H. Grover and W. C. Sterling and Sons Co. These properties extend from the Kalkaska line across section 18. Prosecutor Nellist was opposed by Attorney H. H. Partlow of Lansing, and the latter convinced the jury that the deer was shot within the property lines of the above two land owners.

HI-Y MEMBERS TO ATTEND CONFERENCE

The seven Senior members of the Hi-Y Club of the high school will attend the State Older Boy's Conference in Muskegon on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. This delegation is the first to ever represent Grayling at one of these very worth while programs. A convention of some 1200 of the state's peopliest high school boys, entertained by one of Michigan's major cities, and led by some of the nation's best talent, this annual event is eagerly planned for months ahead of time. Grayling is fortunate to be able to attend and the value of such a trip is obvious and far reaching.

The conference is returning to Muskegon as a place of meeting with the memory of the open hospitality found there in 1924.

The boys who are to make the trip are Norman Dawson, Milford Parker, Russell Byrnes, James Knibbs, Kenneth Gothro, Robert Funck, and Leiland Marshall. Supt. R. R. Burns and Principal Gerald Poor of the local schools are spending their vacations as delegation leaders.

Fellowship Supper and Family Sunday.

Wednesday, November 28th, at 6:30 a Fellowship supper will be held at the Michelson Memorial church. We hope that all families interested in the church will plan to be there. Our purpose is to meet together for a social evening. There will be no charge for the supper, but it is to be "not luck" and each family is expected to contribute something.

The supper is to be followed by a short program.

Sunday, December 4th, we will observe as Family Sunday. We hope

ALEXANDER FUNERAL LARGE LY ATTENDED

Mrs. J. Frederick Alexander, who passed away at Mercy Hospital on Monday morning, was laid to rest Thursday morning with services at St. Mary's church at 10:00 o'clock. Fr. Culligan celebrated the high mass of requiem and delivered a most impressive sermon. During the service Mrs. Frank Tetu sang "Ave Maria" in her clear soprano voice and a quartet composed of Mrs. C. G. Clippert, Mrs. Harold Jarman, Mrs. Roy Milnes and Mrs. Herbert Gothro sang two selections very beautifully. "Lead Us, O Father" and "Nearer My God To Thee." Fred R. Welsh, T. P. Peterson, C. J. McNamara, A. J. Joseph, Carl Johnson and George Olson officiated as pallbearers and interment was in Elmwood cemetery.

Following are those from out of the city, who came to be in attendance at the funeral: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Callaghan, the former a brother of the deceased; of Detroit; Mr. James Callaghan, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Lewis, the former a brother and latter a sister; also Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Pickhaver and daughter Mary Lou of Chicago; Mrs. W. T. Callaghan and daughter Jane, Mr. Frank Obetta and daughter Edna, Mrs. Rose Carse and granddaughter Evelyn, Mr. Don Taylor of Greenville; Mr. B. R. Spriggs, son John and daughter Betty of Belleville, Mich.; Miss Sue Gross, Miss Lou Wilson, Mrs. D. C. McKay and daughter Mrs. Ward Heinbecker, Grand Rapids; Fred Culver, Mr. and Mrs. Don Culver, Saginaw.

That all families will plan to attend our 11 o'clock service. Special music will be provided for this service.

G. H. S. AND ALUMNI CLASH

The 1932-33 edition of Grayling's Northern Lights will be seen in action when the present squad of basketballers take the floor against the Alumni stars of yesterday. The prospect is that the basketball season will be inaugurated with a real old battle as Coach Cornell's up and coming outfit tangle with the Lumberjacks.

The high school team has been practicing hard and showing good results. They have every reason to believe that they can give a good account of themselves. Some new combinations are in prospect for Grayling fans as the boys fight for positions. It's a toss-up for more than one position and no man on the squad has a right to feel that his place is secure. Not in many a season has there been such a battle for places, and Grayling is due to have a team with capable reserves. The so-called second team is very close to first team ability.

Against the school boys will be pitted the very well known Lumberjacks; players known to Grayling fans for seasons past who need no introduction. The names of Hendrickson, LaGrow, Robertson, Brady, Neal, the Harrisons, and Korhonen are known through the north. How will the boys function this year is yet to be seen. The new rules are something to consider, though it is doubtful if Mr. Average Fan will find much difference in the game.

The Reserves are stacking up against a team of challengers in what promises to be a good preliminary. The games will start at 7:30 and judging from the interest displayed about the town a good crowd will be on hand to witness the fracas. The refereeing will be done by Coach Abe Cohen from East Jordan, a colorful and efficient official. The Green and White will meet his team this season in two contests, East Jordan being slated to play here Saturday, Feb. 18th in which should be a very attractive sports bill.

This is Coach Cornell's initial bow to Grayling fans and no effort is being spared to make it a successful evening from the high school point of view.

The games will be played tonight, Nov. 23rd, beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

A VERY HOT ELECTION FOR REP. WM. GREEN

State Representative William Green, Republican candidate for reelection, narrowly escaped death or serious injury Monday morning while motoring from Hillman to his home six miles north and a half mile east of Hillman.

Five gallons of gasoline contained in a large metal can in his automobile suddenly ignited, flames enveloping the interior of the car. Rep. Green quickly stopped the car and leaped out. The sudden burst of flames singed his hair and his clothing, but he was unharmed.

It is believed gasoline which spilled from the container on the floor became ignited. The fire started so suddenly that Rep. Green was almost trapped without warning. The auto was destroyed. Advance, Saginaw City.

ROSCOMMON'S PET ELK KILLED

Roscommon's pet elk is dead, having been killed about dark last evening while feeding along the roadside on U. S. 27, just north of the state garage, a half mile from the business section of town. The animal was killed by John Kunkosky of Detroit, who with a lady friend from Flint, was driving south. In spite of the fact that two or three cars were parked beside the road and several men standing there watching the animal, the man jumped from his car and fired three shots into the animal before he could be stopped. Fortunately one of the onlookers was Deputy Sheriff Alden Green, who immediately placed the hunter under arrest. He plead guilty in Justice Kiely's court late last night, was fined $50 and $6.85 costs and remained in jail until the fine was paid.

The elk is the third one of the herd recently liberated at the Houghton Lake reserve to be killed by hunters. The animal found its way into town a couple of weeks ago and has since made its home just north of the village where he was seen daily, becoming quite an attraction for tourists. He was quite tame at times could be fed from the hand. He was a two-year old, weighed about 400 pounds and carried a nice spread of horns.—Roscommon Herald-News.

SCHOOL NOTES

(Too late for last week)

Intramural Basketball Goes Over Big Wednesday night, Nov. 16, was the date that several boys in Grayling High School were waiting for. It marked the opening of intramural basketball. There were two games, each of which were very exciting, which the scores will prove. In the first game a new fellow in school showed talent by making some exceptionally fine shots. He answers to the name of Smith.

There is some good looking material in these teams and the fellows on the High School squad want to watch their step or they will be pushed out of it.

The second game proved to be the thriller. It was nip and tuck right up to the last two minutes of play. But there's an excuse for that as Ed, Chalker and Jerome Brady played on opposite teams.

These games are to be played regularly every week on Wednesday nights.

If anyone should happen to see the name Harold Counts J. R., don't think the J. R. stands for Junior, because it stands for Janitor. Harold is filling a vacancy while Mr. Neal is hunting deer.

Roger Kniff was absent from school Tuesday. He was hunting deer and a nice big buck got in front of him and Roger shot so close to him that he fell down but to Roger's regret it got up and ran away again.

Love for Sea Is Cured by Mishap to Schooner

Fall River, Mass.—A local newspaper carried an item recently recalling the ill-fated voyage of the schooner Hiram Smith, which left here in December, 1898, and lost her captain and two men in a storm off Cape May, N. J.

Herbert L. Hart of Buffalo, N. Y., whose father, David, was one of the survivors of the crew, told the story. He indicated the newspaper that his father never went to sea again and lived to be ninety-six.

DEPT. OF STATE STATE NEWS BULLETIN

Election recounts are being started in 19 counties this week as a result of petitions filed with the Department of State and various county boards of canvassers last Friday.

Recount laws were drastically changed by action of the 1931 legislature. Under present laws, candidates seeking recounts must deposit $5 for each precinct which is to be counted for the second time. The deposits are returned to candidates if results of the election are changed. Formerly all state and district recounts were conducted in Lansing but under the 1931 act, these recounts are held in the various counties under supervision of the board of state canvassers. The law provides that any state officer, state employee or member of boards of county canvassers can be designated to represent the board of state canvassers. Last Friday was the final day for petitioning for recounts and the actual work of retallying the votes started almost immediately. The final report of the board of state canvassers will not be made until after all recounts have been completed.

The first recount petition involving a state office was filed by Burnett J. Abbott of Saginaw, Democratic candidate for secretary of state, who, on unofficial returns is trailing Secretary of State Frank D. Fitzgerald by approximately 3,500 votes.

Anticipating the filing of a recount petition by Mr. Abbott, Mr. Fitzgerald, in order to protect his lead, asked for recounts in 749 precincts. These petitions involve Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, Genesee, Kent, Gogebie, Gratiot, Kalamazoo and Muskegon counties.

Many of the other recount petitions were filed by candidates who are ahead on unofficial returns, in order to protect their apparent victories. Charles Bowles, candidate for Congress in the 15th Congressional district, requested a recount. Other recount petitions were filed by: Rep. Dana H. Hinkley and Eugene Brown, candidates for state representative in Mackinac and Emmet counties.

Rep. Walter F. Jackson and Lawrence O'Neill, candidates for the same office, in Lake and Mecosta counties.

24 candidates for various county offices.

WOODBURN SCHOOL NEWS (Seneth Greer, Teacher.)

The box social and program was well attended. We want to thank all of those who helped to make it a success.

The "Helping Hands" will meet with Miss Martha Peterson, Tuesday, November 29th.

Miss Helen Woodburn is expected home Wednesday night for her Thanksgiving vacation, from Mt. Pleasant where she is attending college.

Mr. George Thompson and friend, Mr. Richards of Pontiac, spent a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Woodburn, while deer hunting. The former is a brother of Mrs. Woodburn.

Mr. James Thompson spent a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Vallad while deer hunting in this vicinity.

Mr. Amos Greer and friend Lyn Sisco of Gladwin attended our program and box social last Friday evening.

The hunters at Mr. Burt Plagens' returned to their homes Monday with five nice bucks.

Miss Olga Everard and Miss Frances Hewens left Wednesday for Ypsilanti to spend the Thanksgiving holidays visiting friends.

Orson Corwin and his son Emerson of Northville arrived the last of the week and while Emerson is trying his luck at hunting deer his father is visiting among relatives and old friends. Mr. Corwin operated a drayage business here for years.

The following young people received the holy rites of confirmation at the Danish-Lutheran church Sunday: Evelyn, Lois, and Robert Sorensen, daughters and son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sorensen and George Hanson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hanson. Rev. Hans L. Juhl, pastor of the church, administered the rites.

A stray bullet Sunday went through the W. H. Ketschek car parked near his hunting haunt. Right beside it was a car belonging to another party and the bullet went through that car first and then through the Ketschek car. Mr. Ketschek was about 100 feet away and heard the shot, but did not know that it had hit his machine.

A. M. Henderson, manager of the local Nehi Bottling Works returned home Thursday from Cleveland, where he had been in attendance at a national Bottlers convention. He was accompanied by Mrs. Henderson and in Detroit while enroute to Cleveland they had an accident with their car. Mrs. Henderson receiving some bad bruises as the result. The car was badly damaged.

L. J. Martin's deer hunting plans were cut short when the day previous to the opening of the season he received a dose of fine shot while hunting rabbits near Frederic. It came accidentally from the gun of Bryan Newell, who was hunting with him. One shot lodged in his hand, another in his wrist and a third in his shoulder. However he is under the Doctor's care and getting along nicely.

Irving Drinkaus, Jr., Harry Taepke and a couple of friends, all of Detroit, are at the Drinkaus cottage on the Ausable river, near McMaster's, for the deer season. Irving had the none too pleasant experience yesterday of having been mistaken for a deer and was deliberately shot at by a hunter from a distance of less than three hundred yards. The bullet grazed his coat sleeve and imbedded itself in a tree by which he was standing. Recovering from the scare he approached the hunter, a stranger to him, and gave him a real thrashing and admonished him to get out of the woods or he would beat him up every time he met him.—Roscommon Herald-News.

Mrs. Catherine Raymond, grandmother of Mrs. Adolph Peterson, who passed away at the home of a son William Raymond, in Toledo was 85 years old. Death was due to pneumonia and Mrs. Peterson and her mother Mrs. William Bromwell were called to the elderly lady's bedside. Mrs. Raymond was the mother of twelve children, among whom were two sets of twins, eight of whom survive together with 43 grandchildren, 51 great grandchildren and 5 great great grandchildren. Mrs. Raymond had resided near West Branch for 60 years, her husband Jerome passing away in 1920. The deceased had visited her granddaughter, Mrs. Peterson during the summer here for several years and had met quite a few Grayling people.

Miss Carmine Sheldon of Otago is visiting Miss Virginia Hartley this week.

Mrs. Reuben Babbitt is expecting her daughter Mrs. W. P. Evans of Detroit for Thanksgiving.

Guy Peterson left for his home in Bay City Sunday after spending the hunting season here. He was one of the lucky ones to get his buck.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Peterson have as their guest this week the latter's brother, Bernard Bromwell of Ludington. Mr. Bromwell got his buck Monday.

Willard Cornell spent the week end in Lansing attending the Michigan State-U. of D. football game. Mr. Cornell is spending Thanksgiving in Akron, Ohio, the guest of his brother.

Miss Margot Monroe spent the week end at her home in Rogers City. On her return she was accompanied by her sister Miss Beth Monroe who spent a few days here.

Miss Jane Keyport, student at Michigan State College will be here to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Keyport.

William Miller of Lansing is expected to come to Grayling to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Miller, who is a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ted Stephan and family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. McNamara and family have as their guest the former's brother Frank McNamara of Gladwin, who was lucky to bag his deer.

There will be a regular meeting of Grayling Lodge No. 356 F. & A. M. on Thursday evening, Dec. 1st. All members are urged to attend. Annual election of officers.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Souders entertained the latter's aunt, Mrs. Elvira Morrison of Port Huron and Miss Jean Corsaut of Royal Oak from Wednesday until Sunday.

Mrs. Otto Failing is enjoying a visit from her mother, Mrs. Ida St. Johns of Detroit, who arrived Monday and expects to remain for the winter. She was accompanied by her son Rex who remained until Wednesday.

It's a story of three bears, and Charles Glerke is feeling pretty good over having shot and killed a big black one Saturday afternoon near McMaster's bridge. It was about four o'clock in the afternoon when he came upon three bears, one large one, and two small ones. He shot at the big one four or five times and having run out of ammunition borrowed some from a member of his party and followed the bear into the swamp. He trailed it quite a distance when the animal turned and looked at him and Charlie finally landed him. It was a thrilling experience and Charlie enjoyed bringing the two hundred pounder home.

BIG IMPROVEMENTS AT WINTER PARK

ASKS CITIZENS TO HELP BY JOINING ASS'N.

The Grayling Winter Sports Ass'n is now putting on a drive for 1933 memberships. It is your duty to belong to our organization, that is, if you are interested in the future welfare of our community.

The future of Grayling depends largely on what we do now. The day is not far off when our two existing mills will have finished their operations and our possibilities of obtaining any other industrial plants are very remote. But, we have one big thing left and that is our great natural surroundings. We are bounded on all sides with good fishing, good hunting, resort lakes and rivers, state parks, game preserves and re-forestation areas; in fact, everything the sports lover and vacationist could ask for. So why not take advantage of these things and make Grayling the center of all out-door sports in Michigan.

Our summer business is well taken care of but we have a winter to look forward to when our business is about at a stand still. There is only one way to stimulate the interest in our town in the winter and that's by "Winter Sports." It is the only thing that can bring outside people, money and interest to our community. Lake Placid, N. Y., a town of 5,000 thinks so much of their winter sports that they bonded themselves for $2,500,000.00 last year to carry out the program for the 3rd winter olympic meet. We have one of the finest locations west of Lake Placid and our possibilities of developing it into one of the largest playgrounds in the west is very good. We have about $10,000.00 invested in our park now with a great many big improvements yet to come.

This year we have cleaned about three acres of land for additional parking, brushed and trimmed out about 4 acres, planted 300 Jackpine trees, built a bobsled trail and dug out the ground for a natural skating rink 280 ft. long by 150 ft. wide. It is, no doubt, the only rink made in this manner in the country. Altogether we have done over a thousand dollars worth of improvements this year and we believe that we are entitled to the fullest cooperation and good will of every person in Crawford county.

If you have not seen our park this year come out and the boys will be glad to take you around and show you why we must have your support and good will in order to put over a proposition that communities of 50,000 people cannot do.

The young men of our town have been the ones to take the lead in about everything that has been done for the advertising of Grayling and Grayling is the best known small town in the State. There are no financial benefits coming to these young men as they are not connected with any business whatsoever. But they believe in Grayling and they see a chance to add something worthwhile to our many sport attractions and at the same time bring us some winter business. So why not join our association and become a "Booster" for the old home town and help us keep things going in spite of the bad luck that has followed us last year.

Our membership costs you $5.00 which entitles you and your family (children up to 18 years) to free use of our park. Equipment for sliding, skating, etc., is not included in the memberships. Snowshoes, skis, toboggans and bobsleighs can be rented at the park. The memberships can be purchased from Harold (Spike) McNeven at the Hanson Hdw. Co., or from his committee.

The following are people who have already become members for 1933: Hanson Hdw. Co., Alfred Hanson, Howard Granger, A. Joseph, A. S. Burrows, Louise Connine.

O. P. Schumann, C. J. McNamara, John Bruhn, Emil Niederer, Jim Bugby.

Holger Hanson, Wm. Ferguson, A. M. Peterson, Geo. Burke, E. L. Sparkes.

Our members will be listed each week in the Avalanche and will be posted in the main building at the park.

C. B. Johnson,
Pres. G. W. S. A.

Owing to our getting out one day earlier this week so that our force might enjoy the Thanksgiving holiday, the Avalanche is somewhat smaller. However we believe we have all the important happenings that will interest our readers.

About "Mara's Nest"

Early Saxons believed in the existence of a queer monster named Mara, which crouched on the chest of sleepers (hence the term nightmare). This beast was supposed to live in a nest lined with gold. Credulous people used to look for Mara's nest hoping to discover the treasure. From this legend, any supposed great discovery which led to nothing, has become known as Mara's, or a mare's nest.

CAMPAIGNS FOR PENNY SEALS

Mrs. Wilbur M. Brucker, wife of the Governor, on a trip to Michigan State Sanatorium in the interests of the 1933 tuberculosis seal sale, found in this lovely child the picture behind the work done with children by the Michigan Tuberculosis Association.

Realizing that the future of the state rests first upon a disease-free youth. Mrs. Brucker urges the generous purchase of the tiny Christmas seal that the life saving work of fighting deadly tuberculosis in children may go on.
